A case suitable for long replicas and disassembled rifles

With its 98 cm usable length, the NUPROL case is ideal for a full-size airsoft replica, a disassembled rifle, or bulky tactical equipment. Its compact size still offers a large internal capacity.

Shock-absorbing wave foam: effective absorption

Unlike customizable foams, this egg-shaped, honeycomb foam is designed to dampen vibrations and secure your equipment without requiring any cutting. It is particularly well-suited for quick, portable use, or for a variety of equipment.

IP67 waterproof rating and pressure relief valve

With its waterproof design and pressure relief button , this case protects its contents from water, dust, and pressure fluctuations. It is therefore suitable for air travel or use in demanding environments.

Secondary specificities

- Available colours: black, OD Green, tan, grey
- Recommended use: long replicas, disassembled rifles, bulky accessories
- Structure: rigid, shock-resistant polymer, designed to last
