Professional trunk for demanding missions

This Nuprol 216L case is designed for those who need volume, reliability, and mobility. Its generous size allows you to carry complete outfits, SMG replicas, electronic equipment , or sensitive materials. Whether at base camp, the shooting range, or on a field operation, it proves its worth.

Integrated wheels and side handles

With its sturdy wheels and two reinforced side handles, the trunk follows you everywhere, even over rough terrain. Moving such a large load becomes smoother, even when fully loaded. An additional front handle makes lifting or vertical storage easier.

Waterproof and durable design

Thanks to its IP67 certification, this trunk is perfectly protected against water and dust ingress. It remains airtight even in the harshest weather conditions or during exposed transport. Its five locking latches ensure complete security, complemented by two padlock points for secure transport in public areas or on airplanes.
