A replica inspired by the modernized Colt 1911

This Galaxy G25 adopts the modernized lines of the M1911 MEU (Marine Expeditionary Unit), the tactical version of the Colt 1911 used by certain American units. A front rail, redesigned sights, and an aggressive design are all part of the package.

Full metal construction for a realistic grip

Its zinc alloy body offers a convincing weight of 585 g , well distributed, for comfort in hand and robustness close to the original model.

Performance and simplicity of the spring system

The spring-loaded mechanism ensures single-shot manual operation, without the need for gas or batteries. With a velocity of 77 m/s (253 FPS), it is perfectly suited for training sessions or short-range target shooting.

Ergonomics and tactical design

The textured, non-slip grip and Picatinny rail under the barrel enhance the modern look of this replica, inspired by contemporary military applications. A good choice for fans of updated 1911s.
