An impressive accuracy for an unbeatable price

The PCP RX5 RAVELLO air rifle is a pellet rifle with a striking design: its Turkish walnut thumbhole stock optimizes its grip and the balance of the weapon.

2 pressure gauges are present on the rifle in order to precisely follow the air pressure present in the 320 cc tank (200 bars maximum) and the pressure contained in the regulator. The latter ensures shots at constant pressure, which has the effect of greatly improving the regularity of shots, and therefore precision.
