The latest generation of brushless motors at the best quality / price ratio

Operating voltage - 7.2v - 11.4v (2 to 3 cell lithium polymer battery)

Brushless DC motors have no brushes to get worn out, they represent a huge leap forward in technology. Brushless output significantly higher efficiency and performance, and have a lower susceptibility to mechanical wear than their brushed counterparts.

- Lighter and more resistant titanium axle.
- Improved magnets to increase motor power and efficiency.
- Reinforced connection cables for increased durability and more compatibility.
- Improved Rotor and Bearing: for greater responsiveness and better response time.
- Winding handmade by an expert.
- High quality 7075 aluminum case.
- Maximum power and torque.
- High quality components.
- High precision CNC design.
- Maximum responsiveness.
- Short Axis
- Internal ESC, low voltage cutout for battery and motor protection.
- "D" insert for the motor head (motor pinion supplied).
