Denix US Army 1855 Revolver Replica

https://sport-attitude.com/en/produit-18988-Denix-US-Army-1855-Revolver-Replica

SKU	Designation	French Law	Length (cm)	Weight (g)	MSRP
CD1070G	Civil War revolver	Vente libre	37	1475	95.00 € incl. tax

Historical replica of the Confederate Civil War revolver.

Denix offers a replica of the LeMat 1855 revolver , emblematic of the Civil War and prized by the Confederate cavalry.

- Length: 37 cm
- Weight: 1.475 g
- Handle: synthetic grip
- Manufacturing: metal and polymer

The LeMat 1855 revolver is an iconic piece of the American Civil War . Used between 1856 and 1865, it became the symbol of the Confederate cavalry and remains today one of the most famous handguns of that period.

A historic model serving the Confederation

Originally designed in Philadelphia by John Krider, this revolver was later produced in France before being shipped in large numbers to Confederate troops. Its reputation was forged thanks to its innovative double barrel and its formidable effectiveness in close combat, profoundly marking the weaponry of the Civil War.

A faithful reproduction signed Denix

This decorative metal replica with synthetic grip meticulously reproduces the details of the original model: cylinder , octagonal barrel and finishes inspired by period weapons. With its 37 cm and 1.475 g , it offers a realism of weight and proportions particularly appreciated by collectors and enthusiasts.

A collector's item for history buffs

More than just a replica, this LeMat Denix embodies a fragment of 19th century military history. Ideal for enriching a collection of antique weapons , completing a historical display case or serving as a scenographic accessory, it is an essential choice for any lover of decorative weapons .

Les prix de vente conseillés sont mentionnés à titre indicatif. Les armuriers sont libres de vendre au prix qu'ils souhaitent. Textes et photos non contractuels, sujet à modification.