Jump, slide and dive, DYE elbow pads will protect you.

Dye Performance Elbow Pads

Description:

DYE Core elbow pads are a must-have. These pads will not slip and protect your forearms from scratches and scrapes. Designed by some of the best players in the industry, DYE elbow pads have quickly become a favorite among professionals around the world.

The ventilated inner material of the arm lets your skin breathe and protects you at the same time. Flexible molded elbow and forearm pads conform to your body and provide ultimate protection when your arms are in motion.

Sizes:

From S to XXL

Colors:

- Black red
- Black/Cyan

MICRO INJECTION DYE LOGOS:

Micro-injection logos complete the design in typical DYE fashion.

NEW ADJUSTABLE STRAP:

The new adjustable leg strap allows you to tighten the knee brace to your liking and prevent it from sliding down.

NEW SIDE PADDING:

Padding has been specifically added to the sides of the knee pads. These individual paddings help with sliding or crawling at different angles.
