Reproduction of the German Walther PPK pistol.

It is a German-made pistol that became famous thanks to the James Bond films, who used it for a good number of his films. It is also the weapon used by Holly Hunter in her role as Detective MJ in Copycat.

Its name comes from the German "Polizei pistole Kriminal". However, he is known by his initials.

The pistol was introduced in 1929 in Germany for the secret police. In 1931, an even shorter version appeared. It is also known to be the weapon used by Adolf Hitler to commit suicide. After World War II, she was the favorite of Western secret services. Its discreet and comfortable size, the small recoil of the shot and the safety of its mechanism popularized it throughout the 20th century among civilian users.
