Extended Protection

At 30cm long, this arm guard covers a large portion of the forearm, providing extended protection against string friction and potential impacts. This extra coverage is especially beneficial for beginner archers or those practicing extended sessions.

Durable Material

Made of high quality 600D polyester, the Maximal arm guard ensures increased resistance to wear while remaining lightweight. This robust material guarantees a long service life, even under intensive use.

Custom Fit

Equipped with four clip fasteners, this arm guard allows for a precise and secure fit, adapting to different forearm sizes. The fasteners ensure a firm hold without compromising comfort, allowing optimum freedom of movement while shooting.

Discreet Design

Available in black, the arm guard features a sober and professional design that harmonizes with most archery equipment. Its neat finish reflects the attention paid to detail by the Maximal brand.
