Monobloc Stainless Steel Design

Maximal Blackrazor broadheads are constructed from one-piece stainless steel, providing increased durability and strength. This design eliminates common issues with detachable blades, ensuring reliable performance every time.

Razor Sharp Blades

Equipped with precision-sharpened blades, these tips ensure a clean and efficient cut upon impact, improving penetration performance and reducing the risk of deflection.

Universal Compatibility

Featuring standard thread, Blackrazor 100 grain broadheads are compatible with most screw-in arrows, providing great versatility for different bow types and hunting setups.
