FAQ

Is the replica delivered ready to use?

Yes, the replica comes in a case with a magazine; you will need to provide gas and BBs for use.

Which gas should be used?

Use a GBB-compatible gas that meets the manufacturer's recommendations. Avoid excessively powerful gases if you are subject to local restrictions.

Does this replica comply with European legislation?

Sale is restricted to persons aged 18 and over. Power must be measured with a chronograph and adjusted if necessary to comply with local regulations (? 2 joules in Europe according to applicable rules).

Is the charger replaceable with other brands?

The supplied magazine holds 24 BBs; compatibility with other magazines depends on the AAP01/Action Army standard - check the model before purchase.
