A rifle ready to fire

Supplied with a GAMO 4x32 WR scope , this air rifle allows you to immediately begin target shooting sessions. Its fixed 4x magnification provides a clear image and quick target acquisition, ideal for precision shooting at medium range.

IGT technology for improved consistency

The IGT (Inert Gas Technology) system replaces the traditional spring with a gas spring. This design reduces vibration, improves performance consistency, and provides a smoother firing cycle. Comfort is enhanced, both during cocking and firing.

Whisper Fusion: a more discreet shot

The rifled barrel incorporates Whisper Fusion technology, one of the most effective noise reduction systems developed by GAMO . Combined with a jacketed barrel, it significantly reduces noise levels while maintaining projectile accuracy.

Ergonomics designed for comfort

The ambidextrous synthetic stock features non-slip gray inserts that improve grip in all conditions. The adjustable CAT trigger allows the shooter to fine-tune the trigger pull to their preference, while the SWA recoil pad helps absorb vibrations for greater comfort during long shooting sessions.

Power suitable for recreational shooting

With an energy of 19.9 joules and a 4.5 mm caliber, this model offers a flat trajectory and excellent accuracy for recreational shooting , plinking , and precision target practice. The 4.5 mm caliber remains the most common and makes it easy to find compatible pellets.
