Designed for the intensity of the game

Whether for speedsoft , Milsim , or CQB games, this replica impresses with its lightness and responsiveness. The polymer and carbon fiber body offers an excellent balance between strength and maneuverability, even in the most dynamic situations.

6.03 mm precision barrel

The polished inner barrel significantly improves accuracy and range . Combined with the adjustable rotary hop-up , it ensures a consistent trajectory and highly valued firing stability during gameplay.

Reinforced V2 gearbox and Zion Arms electronics

The heart of the replica lies in its V2 metal gearbox , equipped with robust components: 18:1 steel gears , a polycarbonate piston with steel teeth , a spring guide on bearings , and a high-torque 19,000 rpm motor . All of this is controlled by the Zion Arms Nebula MOSFET , programmable to adapt firing modes as needed.

Ergonomics and modularity

The adjustable and pivoting DELTA stock allows for precise adjustment to the user's physique. The rear stock adapter, Picatinny rail for red dot sight, and 14mm CCW thread for suppressor or tracer make this replica fully customizable.
