VFC's most realistic AKS-74U replica, designed for demanding enthusiasts.

This VFC AKS-74U GBBR faithfully reproduces the design of the Soviet model, with a remarkable full steel construction, a realistic moving assembly, and compact ergonomics ideal for the field. A replica designed to offer an authentic mechanical feel and top-of-the-line reliability.

- Full-steel : stamped steel body, robust trunnions and internal parts.
- Long-stroke mechanism : realistic cycle and pronounced mechanical return.
- CNC steel bolt carrier : smooth, stable and enhanced feel.
- VSR-Spec hop-up : wide compatibility and accessible adjustment.
- Laminated wood furniture : historical look with quality finish.
- Triangular steel stock : firm locking, lateral folding.
- 42-round plum magazine : lightweight, robust, with dry-fire mode.

The VFC AKS-74U perfectly embodies the compact and responsive spirit of the famous Soviet model. It retains the character of the AK platform, combined with the advantages of a modern and robust GBBR mechanism. Every action delivers a crisp, mechanical feel, typical of full-steel designs.

In play, its compactness allows for quick transitions and exemplary maneuverability, while its reinforced internal construction guarantees appreciable consistency throughout the firing cycle.

This AKS-74U GBBR features a realistic design: CNC-machined steel bolt carrier, long-stroke piston, steel fire control group, and VSR-Spec hop-up for broad compatibility. It's an ideal platform for historical replica enthusiasts seeking an authentic mechanical experience.
