A modern, versatile GBBR rifle designed for maximum control in the field.

The VFC APFG S-012TN SPEAR LT Carbine offers a modern GBBR platform, featuring a 13.1-inch handguard and fully ambidextrous ergonomics. Its all-metal construction and MCX-type architecture provide excellent rigidity and stable, consistent firing behavior, ideal for players seeking an immersive and high-performance replica.

- Full metal chassis : aluminum and steel for lasting reliability.
- 13.1" handguard : integral Picatinny rail + M-LOK interfaces.
- GBBR system : responsive cycle and realistic mechanical feel.
- Retractable B5 stock : modern ergonomics and shoulder comfort.
- Ambidextrous : controls accessible for left-handed and right-handed users.
- Adjustable hop-up : fine adjustment for better shooting consistency.
- 30-round magazine : dry firing mode can be activated.

This SPEAR LT in Carbine format offers an ideal balance between maneuverability and stability. Its 13.1-inch handguard allows for an effective forward grip, while offering numerous accessory options via its Picatinny rails and M-LOK mounts. It delivers a crisp and consistent shooting feel, characteristic of well-designed GBBR models.

The replica is also distinguished by its ambidextrous design, comfortable B5 stock and flash hider mounted on a 14 mm CCW thread, allowing the installation of compatible silencers or compensators.

The SPEAR LT 13.1 Carbine is positioned as a versatile replica, designed to offer optimal firing control and smooth action. Its robust construction, accessible hop-up, and modern ergonomics make it an excellent choice for players seeking a reliable and customizable GBBR platform.
