A stable and organized MOLLE pouch to keep equipment quickly accessible.

The Corso Dagger MK6 pouch combines a compact 31 x 19 cm format with a black polyester construction ideal for organizing gear. Its laser-cut MOLLE system allows for easy attachment to various compatible platforms, including the back panel of a plate carrier. The two-way zipper provides quick and easy access to the contents. A secondary compartment separates smaller accessories from the main compartment for faster retrieval. An external bungee cord helps adjust the load and keeps contents secure. Six rear straps with metal snap closures stabilize the Dagger MK6 during movement. This organization provides a convenient solution for keeping a water bottle or accessories organized and easily accessible during training or outdoor activities.

A MOLLE pouch for organizing your gear

The Corso Dagger MK6 offers organized storage for a bottle and small accessories on a compatible platform. Its secondary compartment allows you to separate smaller items, minimizing the need to search through the main compartment.

Stable attachment to a compatible platform

The Laser Cut MOLLE system facilitates integration of the pouch onto various compatible surfaces. Rear straps equipped with metal snap fasteners ensure it stays securely in place, especially when mounted on the back panel of a plate carrier.

Quick access and adjusted loading

The two-way zipper allows the pouch to be opened from either direction for easy access to its contents. The external elastic cord adjusts the load and further secures the gear during travel, workouts, or outdoor activities.
