Recreational crossbow pistol with cocking lever to easily draw the bow.
Power 80 lbs. Comes with 3 metal lines with synthetic tail.

The Man Kung MK-80A4AL recurve pistol crossbow is, like our other pistol crossbows, particularly suitable for use in confined spaces. The great advantage of this MK-80A4AL is its special draw mechanism. By loosening the lever on the back of the crossbow and pulling it down, the string is pulled back and the bow is drawn (see also second photo). In addition, this crossbow is equipped with a safety catch and an adjustable sight, which you can adjust to the desired shooting distance. It comes with 3 tiles. Due to her peculiar appearance, she is often referred to as "Cobra".

Crossbow pistol designed for target shooting.
