A truly giant Opinel to cut your beef ribs!

- 22 cm stainless steel folding blade (more than a chef's knife!).
- Beech handle, leather strap.
- Blade locking ring open or closed.

The large format knife for your barbecues, table services...

Sharp as a razor, it will cut through your prime rib in one go like butter.

Folding, it will be easy to store in a drawer despite its imposing size. You need a large knife, which will not fit in your drawer if it were open, the Opinel n°13 is made for you. In addition, stored in the closed position, it will be super safe: no risk of cutting yourself when searching the drawer. The Opinel ferrule allows it to be locked both in the closed position and in the open position.
