Originally developed by BERSA as a sidearm for military and law enforcement use, the Thunder® Pro HC was built to perform in harsh conditions and provide decisive stopping power.

Since 1958, BERSA® has been manufacturing accurate, reliable and rugged handguns, using advanced firearms technologies coupled with a history of innovation. The Argentine military, as well as law enforcement around the world, regularly use BERSA® handguns as official sidearms. BERSA® is currently one of the largest private companies in Argentina.
